“ All of our lives have chapters in it and I am glad that I shared a chapter in Angela's life. My fond memories of her as a loving wife, mother and friend did not end as our chapter closed. Together Angela and I survived our daughters teen years and produced two beautiful grown women ready to take on the world. Angela's caring nature drove her to complete her BSN and and to continue to be of service to the elderly and ill for a decade. I celebrate my time with her and her ascension to a better place than we can imagine.
