“ Arch was a good grandfather to me and a very interesting, fun and loveable person. He loved my grandmother Faye with a passion and I admired him for the way he lived his life. He taught me how to square dance, told me great stories about his life, and loved Momma Faye (my grandmother) like I've never seen love before. I'm so thankful that he was here for me. He will always have a very special place in my heart and memories. My condolences to the rest of the family. 💕💕
