“ I will miss your laugh, your tea cakes that no one can make better and especially your logic and reasoning on life that helped me so much when I was young and didnt know alot about how to fix the problems in my life. You always listened to a young 18 yr old ramble. You always kept a toy closet for the kids and we will all miss sitting at your loaded down kitchen table and talking. You set an example we can only try to follow.##imported-begin##Kim Melton##imported-end##
