

Arnold Roy Cogar

April 13, 1930 - May 2, 2018

Arnold Roy Cogar, age 88, passed away on Wednesday, May 2, 2018 in Jackson. He was born April 13, 1930 in Webster Springs, West Virginia to the late Noah Cogar and Violet Cutlip Hamilton. He was a U. S. Navy Veteran, a retired supervisor for GE in Tiffin, Ohio, and an avid sportsman and excellent marksman. He was preceded in death by his brother, Carsey Cogar. Survivors include his wife of 23 years, Lynne Cogar; stepson, Steve Schinski (Misty); two daughters, Deb Eyer (Tom) and Vicky Renfro; stepdaughter, Michele Griffith (Don); four grandchildren, Jennifer Kerr (Ken), Justin Eyer (Jennifer), Matthew Renfro (Barb), and Wesley Renfro (Shawn); and seven great grandchildren. Services and burial will take place in his home town of Webster Springs, WV.

Tribute Wall

AC

“Healing prayers are being sent up for you, Lynne, as you deal with Arnold's passing. I'm so very sorry. He was a great friend to Bill, and I will really miss the phone conversations I had with him after I moved away. I know that God, your family and your friends will help you get through this very difficult period. I promise that in time it does get easier. Love and hugs. I miss you.

Alice Cook

Alice Cook - May 07, 2018 at 09:41 AM