“ Ms. Wilma, ya'll were always such good neighbors to anybody that knew either of you. I had asked about the 2 of you from time to time and had heard that Mr. Audean was not well and hadn't been for a while. I know you will miss him terribly. The fact that he's no longer sick and now waits for you might offer you some peace. That old phrase "parting is such sweet sorrow." Be still and know he's in good hands. God bless you.##imported-begin##Theresa (Fesmire) Tibbs##imported-end##
