She is also survived by her “young-un” (as she always said), Amanda McDaniel and son-in-law Ricky McDaniel; grandchildren: Jessica Hendrix and husband, D.J. Hendrix, of Parsons, Jessica Wallace and husband, Dustin Wallace of Lexington, and Doug McDaniel of Lexington; great grandchildren: Kyndalyn Wallace, Brennan Wallace, and Nathan McDaniel. Visitation will begin at 11:00 AM on Thursday, until time of service. Burial will follow in the Mt. Moriah Cemetery in Reagan, Tennessee.

Pallbearers for Barbara will be: Ricky and Amanda McDaniel, Jessica and D.J. Hendrix, and Jessica and Dustin Wallace.

So sorry for your loss. Barbara has been Gerald's neighbor for many years. We won't be able to be at the the funeral because Gerald is sick and I have a doctor's appointment at the VA.

So sad to see this. I will always remember Barbara. She and I were in McCollum and Ross Cosmetology School at the same time. She was such a sweet person. I remember that she always re-applied makeup at the end of every day to go home to see Johnny. I don't remember if they were married at the time or not. However, I do remember her talking so much about him.

So sorry to hear this sad news. Barbara and I attended McCollum and Ross Cosmetology School at the same time. She was always talking about Johnny. They were so in love. I do remember her applying makeup everyday to look good when she got home. Barbara and I shared our love of animals. Boo was like her child. Barbara will be missed. Prayers for her family.
