“ Benny took me on my first and only high speed motorcycle ride during our senior year at Scotts Hill High School. Rande and I had a Cushman motorscooter, but I had not ridden a fast motorcycle. Benny was already an advanced motorcyclist. He gave me a helmet and told me to jump on his bike behind him. It was before school started, and we headed through downtown Scotts Hill to Highway 100 to Cane Creek Bottom. He soon got the bike up to 95 miles an hour. It was exciting and I said something to him about it. When I opened my mouth to speak, the wind pressure was so strong that I could hardly close my mouth. We got back to town safely and in time for school. Meek and mild Benny was a serious motorcyclist, but he never bragged about it. There was little pretentiousness about him. Since I not lived in Scotts Hill for decades, it was great to see him at our 50th high school reunion. Rest in peace, Benny.
