“ Bernice Long was a friendly person who always had a smile on her face and made time to talk a while when you ran into her in town. I saw in her a lady who loved her husband, children and entire family and always concerned herself with their welfare. She lived a long worthwhile life and has now gone on to be with R. T. again and to sit at Jesus feet. And what a joyful time that will be, she's spending Christmas in heaven this year. Rest in peace Bernice, your job here on earth is well-done and your rewards lie just ahead -, inside those pearly gates.
