

Bette Carol Douglass

December 13, 1943 - March 7, 2014

On Friday, March 7, 2014 Bette Douglass' (70) longtime prayer was answered. She had recently gone to Jacksonville Beach, FL to be with her son and his family. Bette retired from Caywood Elementary School in May, 2005; however, she continued her love of teaching through tutoring. She leaves behind her son, Cary Beane; daughter-in-law Karin Bartolettt Beane; four grandchildren – Megan Beane, set to graduate from Jacksonville University in May; Mara Beane, a freshman at the University of South Florida; Noah Beane, a junior in High School and Amanda Beane, 8th grade; her significant other and true love Ben Douglass Jr. and some TRULY AWESOME FRIENDS. Graveside services are scheduled for 2 pm, Sunday, March 16, 2014 at Rock Springs Cemetery near Parkers Crossroads. Pafford Funeral Home of Lexington is in charge of arrangements.

My husband (Howard Wayne) and I were classmates with Bette Carol. She was such a wonderful, friendly, down to earth person. Our sympathy goes out to all her family.

“ Bette was my neighbor, friend, and colleague. She loved her son, Cary, so very much and always wanted the best for him. She raised him to be a gentleman. The world lost an excellent teacher and friend but Heaven gained a believer. You will be missed dearly, Bette!

“ Betty was a beautiful and very special lady and friend, and such fun to be around. We had many laughs together when our son was a student in her third grade class at Caywood Elementary school, in addition to parties and the occasional trip to Scott's BBQ with friends on a Saturday afternoon. She could light up a room with her beautiful smile! She introduced the Reiher family to Lexington Little Theatre by offering me a relative newcomer to Lexington, what she referred to as "a wee little part" in Our Town. Thanks to Betty that was the start of something really special and wonderful that we shared in and had a ball with together all those years ago! We have beautiful memories of a dear sweet teacher, mentor and friend that we will cherish forever. Rest in peace sweet Betty Carol, soar with the angels, your heavenly journey has just begun!

We send our condolences to her family and special someone Ben Douglass, I know you are all enduring a huge loss with her passing. Keeping you in our thoughts and prayers at this time, may beautiful memories of your very special loved one help sustain you in the days ahead. God Bless.

“ she went to the trouble to order extra books for our son, Allan Guyton, to keep him occupied after he had finished his work so that he wouldn't bother others (and get in trouble for it) who hadn't finished yet. always went that extra mile.
