“ Dear Dad,

I have just watched the video the family prepared in your memory. We both look so happy in the family pictures and I trust that one day we'll be looking happy together again in heaven. I wish I and Enkhjargal and little Bill could have been with you at the end and have attended the funeral. July was about the soonest we could get to Tennessee. We are counting on your help and guidance from above as we continue our life in Bangladesh.

Love always,

“ My heart is saddened, but another star will fill the sky. I met Bill in 1980 at the VA Hospital in Fayetteville, Ar. Worked closely with him for 5yrs, laughed and drank alot of beers with him, he called me taco. We stayed in touch thru out the years, and talked often on the phone. He was one of my dearest and favorite friends, and I will miss his warped sense of humor, great smile and laughter. My prayers are with all of his family and friends. May his memories bring all of you comfort and smiles.##imported-begin##Vikki Apperson##imported-end##
