“ I tried over and over to think of words to say on your behalf Billy. Words do not do you justice. You were a good brother to me. You left with a very special place in my heart. I miss and love you Billy.

“ You touched my life in a way no one has or ever will again. You made me a part of your family from the beginning.....
You were my best friend and confidante...my heart hurts for you and I miss you.
To put it simply.....
For it was not into my ear you whispered,
but into my heart.....
It was not my lips you kissed
but my soul.....
Forever yours,
Betty

“ Billy you were more than a brother. You were my best friend. I am still in denial thinking you will come across the yard or in the back door. We talked many times a day and I'm lost. I can still hear all your comments. My kids loved you with everything they had. You promised me we would grow old adn take care of each other since we were both grumpy. I would do anythign to hear that grumpy again. I miss you wheezer.

“ Words can't really describe what I've been thinking since I woke up that morning, but I'll try. I took advantage of the time I was gave. I didn't come up there everyday, but when I did you were always there. The familiar face that paced outside or in grandma's kitchen will surely be missed. Regardless of you never having children, you were like a father to me. Always listening and keeping me company. I'll write a memories comment one day. I was always told of how similar we were, then and now I see it. I was blessed to have you so close for so many years. The dent you left here will always be felt. Thank you for being a true sibling to my father, and helping out grandma and papa so much. I'm not sure who I'll tell most of my comments to anymore, thank you for everything. I can't thank you enough for being a voice of solitude. In case we never got around to it, I love you, Billy.
