“ Because Bobby didn't receive a proper eulogy by someone who knew him, here's a brief one.

Bobby Middleton was born August 31st 1965 to Harold Wayne and Edith Raymelle Middleton. He attended Beaver Elementary school and Lexington High School, where he was a member of Future Farmers of America. Bobby once worked on the principal's lawnmower in auto shop class, and when he was done, he started it up and drive it down the hall and parked it in front of the principal's office. It was while he was in high school that Bobby met the first love of his life-music. He formed his first rock band there. Bobby graduated from LHS in 1983 and went to Nashville Auto Diesel college where he graduated with top honors. He then moved back to Lexington and opened his own garage while working full time at night. He worked at Johnson Controls, DeWayne Metals, and then went to work for Barlow World as an industrial mechanic for 15 years. Over the years Bobby played lead guitar in a rock band called Flashback, among others. Bobby loved hair metal, Lynyrd Skynyrd, and a long list of what would now be called "classic rock" music. His favorite, and greatest influence, however was Eric Clapton. Bobby loved the blues. If you knew Bobby, you knew he was crazy not only about blues music, but everything blue. Blue truck, blue siding, blue carpeting, blue walls, blue ceilings, blue counters, blue jacuzzi and his favorite blue thing-his blue Gibson Les Paul custom lite guitar. Bobby could make it sing. Bobby was a very humble and generous man. Bobby helped everyone, even people that only called him when they wanted something. He helped them all. That was just Bobby. Bobby was an only child and he loved his parents, his Pa, Ma, and uncle L. Bobby helped to care for his elderly grandmother and uncle as their health failed, setting up home health care and himself taking care of them so that they could die in their own home without having to go to a nursing home. Bobby and his friend Jack Nowell built the house he lived in. Bobby was an only child, but he had a small group of life long friends that were his brothers and sister. Jack Nowell, Stevey Goodman, Sam Williams, Tony Ferrell and Tony's wife Kim Ferrell were Bobby's family. Bobby was one of a kind, but he was the good kind. He was preceded in death by his former wife, Mary Elizabeth Middleton, and was survived by his parents, Harold Wayne and Edith Raymelle Middleton, and his wife. Rosemary Sarver. Rock on, Bobby, and may you find peace in your blue heaven.
