Today is January 2 2024 it's been 8 years now since God took my son home I want to thank all of you that showed your love and concern as well as support as Billy and I struggled through the life without our son from my deepest heart I miss my son ever heartbeat that I have in my soul I know in my heart though that my mighty maker God almighty has done for me what I could not do for myself as well as continue to bless me in my health as well as his father we've been through a lot of rough eight years but you know what God never makes a mistake my faith is what's kept me and my grace is what save me thank you Father God for all of you who have reached out to me in this awful time in my life always know it's your love that saved me your prayers that kept me with that I'll always love you thank you may God bless and keep you and your family all safe and secure through the year of 2024 here we are I'm sorry it took so long today is the day that I have decided to sit down and express the brokenness with my heart the tears silently rolled out my cheeks as the loss of my son I don't get to see him walk down the aisle with his bride I don't get to see the little babies that are born for my son but you know what I do know and what I do have I have his love it was unconditional and he is my guardian angel today and forever till I take my last breath on this earth
