“ As I looked at the picture of Brenna for the first time I fell in love immediately. I wish I could have met her and maybe gone to a game or two. When I leave this world and hopefully go to Heaven, I will meet her there along with my mom, dad, danny, Cissy and Dorene, Steve P and others. I think God and Jesus must have needed an Angel. The hard part for us is the mourning, feel of loss, and the mental pain. I pray that the whole family can heal thru our prayers and Gods love.

“ My husband and I worked with the youth At rhbc and when Brenna was six amity came to louis and said Brenna wants to talk to you. He said great but he thought she was young. But when he talked to her he said she was under great conviction and there was no doubt in his mind that she knew the lord he said tears was just filling her eyes up and he had never seen that in someone that young. But God knew his plans for her. I'm so sorry for your loss. Bless the foster family. Love yall so much!
