“ I've known Mr. Chris only a year now since moving a few doors down from him. I could tell he was someone who loved being outside.
He was either mowing or working on something outside all the time. We would stop and chat often. He taught me how to care for a few of the plants on my property and he was always one to give a friendly wave in passing. He will be missed. My sincere condolences to his family and friends.
