“ My heart is very sad for Jared and the rest of the family. I have know Cinda for many years and it will be very hard not being able to stop by and visit with her. She was such a cut up and always made me feel better after our visits. Cinda will be dearly missed and I am glad I could call her my friend. May this precious Lady rest in the arms of our Lord.

Cinda was one special lady and a good friend. I only wish I could have gotten to spend time with her more. We shared 12 yrs of school together and she loved giving and getting a good laugh always. Cinda, you will be missed dearly but I know you are with Andy, your Dad and many other wonderful friends and family. May God give your family strength for the days ahead.
