Dalton, a Cystic Fibrosis patient, died at his home Wednesday, April 11, 2012. He was a remarkable child who through the help of his family and many other friends was blessed to see his wishes come true. With the help of the Make A Wish Foundation, he traveled to North Carolina and spent two days with Dennis Anderson the owner of Monster Truck "Grave Digger", traveled to Eugene, Oregon and visited and toured Autzen Stadium the home of his favorite football team, the Oregon Ducks, went to Nashville and toured Cooter's Place, a museum for the Dukes of Hazard, his favorite television show, and got to ride a horse for the first time through the help of Mark and Gary Stanfill at their horse stable in Lexington. As a child, Dalton enjoyed activities all boys enjoy: riding his four wheeler and motorcycle, playing video games, playing in the mud and playing on the computer. He was full of life and enjoyed it to the fullest.

He is survived by his parents: Rodney Clete and Amy Marie Johnson Wallace, grandparents: Charles and Judy Johnson and Onieda Garner and the late Cletus Wallace; great grandparents: Matthew and Marie Garner and Beatrice Johnson and the late Everett Johnson; a sister, Bianca Wallace and two brothers: Dustin Scott and Garrett Miller and a nephew, Tanner Tippet. To his parents, he was a “Daddy’s Boy” and his “Momma’s Baby”.

The family would like to specially thank Tabitha Cox, a cousin, for her help and strength in assisting them. She will always be in their heart. Memorial contributions in honor of Dalton can be sent to the , Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, 6931 Arlington Road, 2nd floor, Bethesda, Maryland 20814.
