“ It was my misfortune to have lived far away from Mr. Wheeler. But I was blessed to not only visit with him on several occasions, but also to hear of his kindness and gentleness from one of my dearest friends, his daughter, Carol. She loved him wholly, with all her might. And there's no doubt in my mind that there'll always, always be a special reserved place in her heart where he'll remain forever. - I'm also thinking of Ms. Wheeler. May God see her through this hard time.

“ Wheeler, as we called him, was my supervisor and I respected him for the way he always carried himself. I hope his family finds peace in his passing knowing you'll be together again. My deepest sympathies. Rest my old friend.

“ What a blessing to have had such a wonderful Christian man for a father-in-law. Many times have I thanked God for his example--not only in my life but also in the lives of my sons and their children. Rest in peace, David. We will see you again in Heaven.
