With Deanna being my cousin, I remember us playing together when we were young. She may have been one of my first playmates. I remember visits when we lived in Illinois and in Tennessee. It's been 3 years since I last saw Deanna, and at that time, I hadn't seen her in many years since we lived in different states. Even though it had been so long, when we saw each other we hugged, and she made me feel as if not one day had been lost! I am so very glad that I had that special short visit with her, but I am even more thankful that God gave me her to be my only girl first cousin. I will love you forever, Deanna!!!
