“ Pam and family-you have my deepest sympathy.
I will always remember the day that you had back or some type surgery when we were at Beaver many many years ago and I found Debbie in the bathroom crying her eyes out because she was scared for you. We stayed in there and cried and prayed together for a while and we were a lot closer friends after that. The last time I saw her was our 30th class reunion. It pains me deeply to lose any classmate and I feel very deeply for you in your loss-A sister is a forever friend.
All my love and prayers.
