“ Diana, You were a beautiful soul who shared your beauty without reservation . Your outlook and love of life was one to be copied and admired. The way you cared for and loved all living things was without boundaries. You touched and left an indelibly good thoughts and a forever lasting impression on anyone who met you. You my dear will live on in the hearts of all who knew you. I will miss you foreverLove you forever.....And treasure all the memories of your warmth and compassion that I had the privilege to share with you. My heart though sore with MY loss is stronger and fuller for having known you. And I am a better person as well for having spent time with you. I WILL Love and miss you until we meet again. “ My life changed the day Diana moved into the house next to me many years ago! We laughed, we shared pets, we rescued birds and squirrels. She became one of the most special friends a person could have! She shared her life, family and friends with me and she will be in my heart forever. My eyes can no longer see you but my heart will feel you every day of my life!
