“ Always and kind and gentle man!! It seems all of us who worked with him now come out to pay our respects. Thanks for the good times and fond memories. Hours together in the ambulance up and down the road brings a smile to my face and sometimes laughter in my heart. May you rest in peace my dear friend.

“ Bo always made me laugh. We worked for JMCAA and he and I made lots of calls together. He was a hard working man and tried to do things right. It's strange that he died on my birthday. You will be missed, "Bo"...R.I.P. Your old friend "Ducky"...

“ We rode together for about seven years in JMCAA. We became good friends. Your dad was a great man, in spite of what was told about him. RIP, Sincerely, Feeder Pig aka Larry Martin Higdon
