“ I had the pleasure of meeting Bro. Coffman when I was conducting a pastor search for Bunches Chapel Baptist Church. I called Doyle when someone gave me his name as a person I might be interested in. So one evening I called Bro. Doyle and talked with him about preaching for us one Sunday. He said that it was something he had been praying about as he had been sick and felt that the Lord was leading him back into the ministry. He preached three or four Sundays before he was offered the full time job. He was always available when someone was sick or having surgery and went above all that could be expected of him. He preached his first service as pastor on April 17th 2008 and continued until August 21st 2013. He is loved by many and will be missed. We had a good relationship that I will value till we meet again. Gene Casey Gideons International.
