“ Dear James,
I met your mom only once so I did not know her well. I wish I could have. Mandy has told me that she was a fun, grandmotherly lady. I don't want to think about what it feels like to lose your last parent, your mom. My heart goes out to you. What sadness and pain must fill your heart. May wonderful memories and God's plan of salvation bring you comfort and a peace that passes all understanding. May the picture that the Bible paints of heaven be our encouragement to live lives worthy of entry there so we can all be together and meet one another and spend time enjoying the company those we long to see. May God's mercy and grace open that gate for us as we do not deserve to go in. Did your mom set a Godly example of love for you to follow? I think she did. Someone did, because it shows. I wish I could be with you to pay my respects in person but that could not be. Please know that I (we) love you and Danita very much and I am praying for God to hold you all in his loving arms. In Christ,
