“ She was meek, humble, and loved The Lord and her family. We visited a lot. My favorite memory was running through her front door and climbing in a chair at the breakfast table and eating all the sugar out of the sugar bowl. This precious lady never got angry with me, she would always tell me I was going to be sick, then I would just smile at her and she'd smile back at me. I loved her. Edna loved her family, Raymond was the love of her life. She was so proud of Frances and Ricky. I spent many days sitting in her kitchen listening to her and mother talk. I'm so sorry for your loss Ricky and Frances. I'll never forget all the good times. Frances was correct about one thing, if a picture was made I thought I had to be in it. Edna was a Godly woman and she will be greatly missed. ”

Frances, I'm so sorry about your mom. What a great testimony of life she left behind. She was truly a virtuous woman. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
