“ I always found Ehrhard to be an inspiration to me practically all of my adult life. When we both lived in Illinois, he was the godfather to my children, and seemed so much kinder than all of the other guys I knew at the time. He later moved to Tennessee to live in God's country as he put it. A few years later I was transferred to the same area of Tennessee where he lived. Doris and Judy, my first wife were very close as first cousins, so it was natural that we would all be closest friends there as well. His dedication to the church and his eagerness to help so many without hesitation, was a relatively new concept to me, and it impressed me very much. I would like to think that I began to pattern my life after his in the years to come. Go in peace with the Lord, Ehrhard, as you have served him well during your time here on earth, and you will be greatly missed.

“ Erhard, Wolfgang and I grew up as childhood friends on Madison Street in Bellwood, Illinois. We played baseball together (he was much better than I at it), had a 53 Oldsmobile we drag raced together with a number of our friends and worked together at Capital Packaging Company. Capital Packaging is also where met Doris and fell in love.

We lost touch over the years but I am very sorry to hear he has passed.
