“ Precious Friends, we cherish the 1988 yard picnic memory with musically talented friends giving their talent and time to make Jacks Creek widow women and seniors happy. Toby was better than Hank Williams himself! I still picture him in western attire;those boots and hat made me smile; he was happy playing the guitar and making others smile and toe-tap at his singing. His sister, Loy Jones, was great at being Patti Page at the picnic, too. His brother, Jack, came to entertain 10 years later at another yard birthday party picnic for John and Mary Tignor. There are so many multi-talented McAdams; they cared enough to share time and talent. Jimmie, your talent fits in perfectly, too. You teamed up to share talent with many folks. Now the talent is passed down to Charles, Dee, James, Kathryn, and Patrick. Thanks for the memories and smiles. God bless all.##imported-begin##Don, Pat, and Dusty Jones##imported-end##

“ Jimmie and family. My thoughts and prayers are with you today. I wont be able to make the trip to be with you because of health problems today. Just know I am here for you and please call me if I can help you with anything. As you know we all loved and respected Mac at the Traditions group and cherish the times we have spent together during,before and after meetings. He will be missed.
