“ Faye , you will be sorely missed by all your family, friends and people who came to know you. You were the kindest person I have known in my lifetime. You were always helpful to your parents and to me since I was a child until you left this physical world & went home to the Lord. You endured much sickness during your life but still managed to be a Rock for all of us, never complaining just accepting of whatever you had to deal with. I would often ask you how you we’re doing and your answer was “I guess I’m alright “. You don’t meet many people like Faye in a lifetime & if you do you should count your blessings! We all love you and will miss you. To family & friends I’m sorry for your great loss. Glenda, Brian, Nora, Taylor ,Carina, Lisa and a list so long I can’t list them all here cherish the memories you have of Faye she loved all of us. Trust in Jesus and get to know him if you don’t already he will welcome you with open arms, there is a reason for everything and he doesn’t make mistakes! May the Lord place his hand of peace upon you during this time of mourning & sorrow. Love y’all, James (Jim) Blankenship
