

F. L. Jowers, Jr.

October 19, 1921 - August 17, 2009

F. L. Jowers, Jr., age 87, was called to heaven while working in the fields that he loved and farmed. He was never one to just sit around and he was always busy on the farm. He quoted the Bible often and would say that idle hands are the devil's workshop. He was born in Henderson County on October 19, 1921 to Florence and Addie Segro Jowers. He helped his parents on their farm until he went to serve his country in the Navy as a carpenter during World War II. Afterwards, he married Jewell Gibson and they started a family farming where he continued for 60 years. He was a long time member of Natchez Trace Missionary Baptist Church and during his life witnessed to many people. Along with his wife of 61 years, F. L. leaves four sons, Roger (Gail), Stan (Grapple), Marty (Cheri), and Greg (Rita) all of Lexington, two daughters, Marlane Sheppard (Terry) of Beech Bluff and Lisa Smith (Leo) of Crystal River, FL, one sister, Excelle Hopper of Lexington, twelve grandchildren, three step grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, three step great grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Carl Lee, three sisters, Mae Atkinson, Virginia Petty, and Opal Hemby, and one great grandchild, Noah Alan Jowers. Funeral services are scheduled for 1:30PM, Thursday, August 20, 2009 in the chapel of Pafford Funeral Home in Lexington. Burial will follow in Hare Cemetery.

“ I believe my Papaw served in the war and was best friends with Mr. F.L. Jowers. He talks about him all the time. His name is Edwin Parks. E.A Parks, T.L. Lewis and F.L. Jowers were best friends in service. Anyway...I'm sorry for your loss. I have a bunch of pictures of him.##imported-begin##Katie Shaffer Adams##imported-end##
