The world has lost another of the "greatest generation"... another hero has arrived home. Floyd was wrong about one thing- when I saw him on Veteran's Day, he said "I wasn't a hero". Then he described his role during WWII. I disagree my friend- you were a hero. What a tremendous blessing to have known Floyd and to have enjoyed his ever present smile and warm greeting. It's because of the great gift of salvation given by Jesus that I will be able to see that smile and hear that greeting again one day. Until then, we will miss you Floyd, but rejoice in your beautiful new home.

“ Marv, Jeannie, Sonny, Nancy & kids--We are so sorry for your loss but celebrating that Floyd is one of heaven's newest members! He was such a special "Pa" and I will be forever grateful for the time that I got to spend taking him and Dad to the Veteran's Day Events. Their stories about WWII were incredible and the most amazing part was that they didn't consider themselves heros! He loved you with an everlasting love and you were such a beautiful example of God's love in action while you were taking care of this dear man. Again, Jeannie, it was perfect that your dear daddy left your arms and went into the arms of Jesus! Love and prayers, Rollin and Connie
