She loved being involved in ministries and prayer groups. Her favorite time of the year was the Feast of Tabernacles. She also enjoyed going to auctions and taking trips with her husband, girls day out trips with her daughter, shooting nerf guns with her grandson, countless hours of dance entertainment with her girls, and watching her oldest granddaughter graduate.

The family wishes to thank everyone that has prayed for them and with them.

The family also wishes to express gratitude to Avalon Hospice for the special care that was given by the entire staff.

“ I went to Westover School with Freda from Thitd grade on. She was a big believer even then. When her church would have Revivals she would always come to school the next day saying what happened At church the night before. I remember she always had a smile on her face. Prayers for the family. We know she is smiling now!!
