

Gladys P. Betzler

July 12, 1935 - December 9, 2003

Gladys P. Betzler, age 68, left this earthly life for her heavenly reward on Tuesday, December 9th, 2003. Gladys died at Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville after a 3 ½ week illness. Gladys was born in Missouri and moved to Lexington in 1961. She was an avid bowler, reader, and loved to tend to her flowers. She had participated in the Senior Olympics and enjoyed playing rook with her friends at the Senior Citizens Center. She especially loved her dogs. Before Gladys became ill, she volunteered at Briarwood Nursing Home and Methodist Hospital helping those in need and always looking for ways to minister to others. Gladys lived her life in devotion to God and was an active member of the Fairview Church of Christ. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend to all who met her. Gladys leaves behind to cherish her memory, her devoted and beloved husband of 48 ½ years, Jerry Betzler, her three daughters, Cheryl Hughes (Dan) and Carol Veteto (David) of Lexington, and Brenda Pfountz (Carl) of Cordova, seven grandchildren, Melanie Atchison (Michael), Clint Moody, Ronnie Hughes, Whitney Jowers (Flynn) of Lexington, Laura and Ashley Pfountz of Cordova and Rob Pfountz of Fayetteville, AR. She leaves one great-granddaughter, Aliya Jowers. She also leaves her mother-in law, Daisy Betzler and brothers and sisters-in-laws, David and Faye Betzler of Lexington, Darrell and Velda Betzler of Sullivan, IL and Barbara Hulett of Conyers, GA and many nieces and nephews and a host of friends. Visitation will be at Pafford Funeral Home on Thursday from 10:00 until 9:00 and on Friday from 10:00 until time of services at 2:00 with Charles Thomason and Dan Hughes officiating. Burial will follow at Fairview Church of Christ Cemetery.
