“ Henry Gibson was one of the toughest men that I have met but in the same breathe one of the softest hearted people that I have known. He was always good for his word and a handshake was a contract. He was the one of the core reasons for the loyalty and success of the Co-op and was known by four generations of agriculture. I am proud to have worked with him and a better person because of the experience. Henry will not be forgotten but I am sad for his departure. To his family and friends, I mourn his death with you.

Henderson County lost a very good man in the passing of Henry Gibson. Henry help a lot of people and done a lot of good things and didn't expect any credit for it. He gave me a job when I needed one and told me I could work for him until I could find a better one. I will always remember his laugh and his smiles. I am a better man because I can in contact with Henry Gibson. We always called him Slick.
