“ Dearest Hilda, a beautiful lady. She loved caring for her family. She made the best rolls and biscuits in the world and Christmas Jam cake and Custard. She loved nature, she could care for a cactus and coax it into a blooming giant. She loved her antiques. I never go into a shop without hearing her ask: "Did you find any goodies?"

One special memory: Hilda was always the one who found the stay penny on the sidewalk and she used to say, "someday I'll find a hundred dollar bill. So one Christmas Herman Perry pasted that hundred dollar bill between two dishes and wrapped them up. She was so surprised and delighted.

A great gift to enjoy life so much though all it's adversities. The angels have welcomed her with open arms.

I wish we could be there with ya'll, We love you Herman Perry and we'll see you soon.
