“ I used to know Mr Buck and his family when we were just kids our parents were pipeline friends. I have often thought of this family, him and his sisters but lost all contact after we grew up. Sorry for your loss.

“ Howard was like a son to me; always making me laugh, giving me lots of hugs and love, loved to tease me and just a joy to be around. I appreciated all he done for my daughter and me in all the years we knew him; he will truly be missed. You have someone to be proud of for he was a good man. Our prayers are with you and may the memories be a blessing. Clara McNeal
