“ I sure will miss Ikey. He and Nadine were a big part of our church. They were always faithful to be there. I only knew them for a few short years, they always made the time to speak and fellowship with you. Without a doubt, Ikey is strolling over heaven right now. Rest in peace Ikey and I will see you some day.

“ All of us at Shady Grove will certainly miss Ikey. He and Nadine have been a big part of our church for several years. He could play the piano like no one I have ever heard before. That voice was awesome. He had to be one of sweetest and most humble men that I have ever known. Now he is playing and singing in heaven with the angels. Rest in peace my dear friend. You will certainly be missed.

“ I am going to miss his "special Sunday Morning specials" that he shared with our congregation...He was truly blessed with the gift of music...he was a blessing to our church!! One of the songs he did so well "Go Rest High on that Mountain" And I know that he is!!

“ Ikey & Nadine have been an inspiration to me. His music may have been silenced here on earth, but there's a serious jam session going on in heaven right now with him playing the piano, singing & praising God! We have all been blessed to know this truly good man.

“ A good man that I have known all my life. I grew up at his grocery store and hung out there as a teen. He is a childhood memory for me. Gave me my first "charge account" for Cokes and candy.
