I remember my Aunt Jean as always being so full of life and so much fun to be around. Always loved to go to her house when we lived in Illinois too. Great memories are what keep our loved ones with us after they're gone. Praying now for you.. David, Sheila, and Kathie that as you face each new day without your mom that her sweet sweet memories will sustain you until we all will meet her again in heaven. What a great reunion that will be with Ma Dunivan leading our big gang!!! Love you all very much.
