“ Aunt Inus, there are so many precious memories of you. We could not see one another these last few years, but I did write and send you pictures to let you know I was thinking of you. I was hoping to be able to visit with you this year. I will always cherish our long talks and how you always had my and my brother Danney's best interests at heart. You were always looking out for us. Rest in peace and tell the rest of our dear Stone family we miss them all. Love you, Patty Stone Teeters & Family
