“ JV was a very special cousin of mine who was always so sweet to say hello to me and "catch up" (when he wasn't teasing me abt something or other) each time we saw each other, mostly at events, in these later years. Back in the day we had fun and good times when a bunch of us cousins gathered at the home of our Pappy and Mammy Moody's in the Judson Church community.,but the years have passed and our generation is moving on to our eternal home one by one. Rest in peace, dear JV. Love from from Eddie Joyce

“ J. V. Moody was a fine Christian man. Through many years I played golf with him, Bill Rhodes, and Jimmy Patton. He was our friend and we regretted his being unable to play golf the last few months. We also grieve with the family over his death. Dr. Hoyt Wilson
