

James A. Maness

September 29, 1925 - August 13, 2002

Funeral services for Mr. James A. Maness are scheduled for 4:00pm, Thursday, August 15, 2002 at Corinth Baptist Church in Darden with Bro. Don Franks and Bro. Randall Woods officiating. Burial will follow in the church cemetery. Mr. Maness died Tuesday in Lexington. He was born Sept. 29, 1925 in Henderson County to the late Ellis and Sarah Maness. He was a WWII Navy Veteran and a retired MagneTek employee. He was a member of Corinth Baptist Church where he served as a Deacon for over 40 years. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Pauline Maness of Lexington, his son, Mr. Parker Maness of Lexington, two daughters, Deloris Gean Maness of Darden and Cathy Gilliam of Parsons, a brother, Mark M. Maness of Lexington, Lillie Aldridge of Decaturville, eight grandchildren, and thirteen great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by two children, Roger Dale and Deborah Kay Maness.