

James "Bill" W. Harris

July 28, 1923 - February 24, 2005

Funeral services for Mr. James W. "Bill" Harris are scheduled for 11:00am, Saturday, February 26, 2005 at First Baptist Church, Lexington with Dr. Hoyt Wilson and Dr. Mike Adams officiating. Burial will follow in Lexington Cemetery. Mrs. Harris died Thursday in Lexington. He was originally from Nashville and served in the U. S. Army and fought in Italy during World War II. He was educated at both Vanderbilt and Cookeville, TN. He was an operator for several of TVA's power plants, a plant superintendent for Colorado Utilities, a long-standing member of First Baptist Church in Lexington, Rotary International and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. He also owned and retired from Sullivan & Harris Insurance Company in Lexington. He is survived by his wife, Robbie J. (Sullivan) Harris, two sons, James W. "Jim" Harris III and Ed (Ginger) Harris, and a grandchild, Megan Harris, all of Lexington. He shall be greatly missed by his family and friends.