“Mary Beth, Keith, Tianita and all of my family there - My heart has been heavy and burdened over the loss of Brennan this weekend. I have thought and prayed for you without ceasing. There were few words I could put to my heart's cry, but I groaned and wept and lamented before the LORD for you.

I ran a triathlon race early Sunday morning, in Brennan's memory. It seemed long, but when it was over it dawned on me how very short it really was. It always seems that way when the race ends. Brennan ran his race so very well, and he touched many lives, and hence forth he shall wear the Crown of Life. My uncle Donald (Franks) poured Wisdom and the Knowledge of God into my own life since my childhood, and I am confident he poured even more into Brennan, and that he spoke and breathed into him the Breath of Life and Wisdom, and that Brennan lives forever and ever because he believed in God and in His power and in His resurrection.

The oil in Brennan's lamp is full. His flame shall never be extinguished, his life will never be diminished, because it mattered and it counts as a testimony that Jesus is Lord, both now and forever. He is a beautiful young man, even more full of Life now than ever before.

Well done, good and faithful servants, all of you: Dukes and Franks. You raised a good one in Brennan, and I say to you, well done.

In Jesus' Name - Glynn###imported-begin##Glynn & Lisa Spangenberg###imported-end##
