“ I have many fond memories of Aunt Janice but here is one she had the biggest time with. Back in my younger days, dad's version of cutting Marvin's and my hair was to shave it all off. I wore a camo hat 24/7 to cover it up. I guess dad's razor broke because we eventually got to let it grow out. I was visiting grandmother for a week one summer, still wearing the camo hat, and my hair was long enough where it curled up from the back of the hat. Aunt Janice came by and all she did was talk about my hair and said she could fix it up for me. We all at that age are vain of our looks but since none of the cousins were there, I let her do it. Her version of fixing my hair was getting grandmother's pink cushioned curlers and putting them in my hair, For about an hour, I had every type of hair "fix" you could think of. The whole time, she was laughing and giggling and I was laughing and giggling. Seems like it was yesterday. As of this typing, my hair is long, still wearing a cap, (the camo hat has been retired), and my hair is curling up out the back. Not only I but we all will miss you. Mike

I have fond memories of Aunt Janice. I remember when we came to visit Grandma Beulah I spent the night with her and Uncle Spurgeon. They hadn't been married that long. I was about 10 or 11 years old. Aunt Janice was only about 16. They fixed me a bed on a cot. I remember that so clearly. She was such a wonderful person. We will all miss her. Gail Dial Haskins
