“ Cindy and Kristy,

I was so sad to hear of your mom's death. I was out of town at my mother's home in Lawrenceburg when I heard about it. My mother has not been well for awhile now. Anyway, I could not get to the funeral home to see you which I would have loved to see you now. We spent alot of time together when you were small and Angie and Jeff were small too. The first time I was at your house, Kristy was 8 mos. old. Kristy, that has been a few years ago, hasn't it? Both of you were such good girls and your mom loved you dearly. She was very special to me. We had many many good times together. For several years we would watch the New Year's Day parade on tv together. David worked for Tom's selling peanuts and potato chips so he would not get the holiday off and Janice and I along with you and my kids would get together. Do you remember any of this or were you too young?

I won't go on and on but did want you to know how sorry I am for your earthly loss even though as a Christian she is alive in Jesus and will live forever in a far better place than you and I are in. I love both of you.

Love,
