“ My cousin..my friend...Dean and I shared laughter ,and tears.In the sunshine and in the darkest of nights we shared...One unforgettable memory...

I had a bunch of kids .Dean had 3...before we left home we always counted heads ,to see if all was there.On this day we had extra because the kids had company.After dropping the extra child off ,Dean and I [along with kids]started into Memphis...

Just before entering germantown..we decided to have a head countonly to find one missing....Oh,I panic...made a U-turn and headed back to Collierville....crying and looking at each side of the road....Dean stayed calm..spoke soft comforting words of encouragement....She kept the kids calmand finally.....after retracing ourselves...we returned home ,only to find mikie sitting in the neighbors sand-box happily playing.Dean finally gave way to tears.....getting it together again ...we made it to Memphis.....only to have Lisa fall out of the back of the station wagon ..at a stop sign in the parking lot!!!

NO ONE WAS HURT.....

But later...after putting the kids to bed that night.....Dean says"Let us not have another day like this!!!!..Laughing....Dean asks...How come everytime we get together we have something crazy happen???THAT WAS DEAN.....ALWAYS MAKING THE VERY BEST OF ANYTHING THAT CAME ALONG.....I'M GOING TO MISS HER.
