“ I remember a little brother that will remain my little protector in my heart forever.. He was the best little brother in the world.. There will not be a day that I don't look up in the sky and tell you I LOVE YOU BABY BROTHER!!!!!! I miss you already and I cherish you and hope your telling Daddy how much I love and miss him too.. I hope you both are happy to see each other.. I keep telling myself your in a better place than any of us!!! I hope you remember all the times when we were young and you always came to my rescue that is why I've got to tell you please come back... There is no one here now to do what you did... I will always remember that little boy who from the start had a special place in my heart..
