“ Joe loved preserves, jelly, etc. on his morning toast or biscuits. Of course, it was hard to make anything as well as his wife, Cookie. But he loved my Pear Honey and every year he left me a huge sack of pears (good canning pears) on my back steps. Sometimes he knocked, sometimes I would just find them there on the steps starting about the middle to end of September thru the middle of October. So I always kept him provided with Pear Honey. My husband had a similar story. Joe loved Van's garlic salty pickles. So Joe kept him provided with peppers, canning cucumbers and Van kept him provided with pickles that were much better than you could buy in any grocery store and his wife, Cookie, kept our freezer stocked with the best Strawberry preserves I have ever eaten (and I have been eating them from my Mom's table all my life.....but Cookie's were better than my Mom's. If you ever meet my Mother....please don't share that story, LOL). Joe, we loved you and we love Cookie too! We already miss you....Van and Sherry Bledsoe, Lexington, TN..... 9-2-14

“ David & I were there beside you when you & Joe said "I do". You carried those marriage vows to the very end as God intended, Cookie. I know the road ahead will be difficult, but lean on God, your family, & your friends. Joe was a wonderful man who always thought of others & lived a godly life. For that you are so blessed. I love you, my friend.
