“ Many years ago Van was staying with me and my then husband Tim in Alabama, and this crazy chick got an attitude and wanted to cause trouble ... well I was going to deal with it but Van jumped in front of me and said, " there is a baby (mine and Tim's daughter Sharia, then 7 or 8) here and you want to start something, I ain't afraid to hit no girl! " He was so protective over "his babies" and nurturing too! There was nobody like Uncle Van!! He was never just a cousin ... he was a brother and a friend.

It is not goodbye, it is see ya later!! Whenever I need strength, a shove or just a little more attitude I know you will be 100% behind it!! You are missed so much and that contagious smile will stay in my heart forever Til we meet again <3
