“ Homecoming was May 8, 2011 at Union Hill. It was a beautiful day and a great worship service. Your Family was there to show our love for you and each other. We listened to one of your sermons and what a comfort it was to hear your voice and your powerful message from God's word. We miss you more than words can express but we receive comfort in knowing that have received your heavenly reward. You worked hard, you served your heavenly father and you were dedicated to your family. I can only imagine how you are rejoicing in heaven. Life is short here. Someday we will all be together forever and no more having to say goodbyes. You are in my thoughts today. I love you Brother!

“ I am so sorry we did not have our daughter-in-law in the video. We carried our 38 picture albums to the funeral home the night Jonathan met Jesus, we did not have our pictures of Nathan and Kelli's wedding. I was about 400 pictures behind in our albums. I am sending a picture including Kelli on the photo page. We are so proud she is a part of our family too. Jon loved her and she loved him. This is to Jonathan, I hope you know how so very, very, very much you were loved and still are. I miss you SO,SO,SO bad. I am so happy for you though that you are with Jesus and your legs do not hurt anymore. You were so important to us all. I have now had to depend on God because when I had you, I depended almost totally on you. I knew whatever happened, you would take care of us. You always took such good care of your family. We have had to try to live without you here. I have to pray for strength on a daily basis. You are missed SO BAD! I am so sad right now without you. It has to get better. On the other hand, I have to try to be happy for you because God is giving you the reward you so richly deserve. I will be there soon. I cannot wait to see you again. Thanks so much for the dream. Even in death you take care of me. I love you baby! If anyone reads this, please pray for our family.##imported-begin##Angie Rogers##imported-end##

“ I did not know that it was possible to miss someone so much. Today is your Birthday. I listened to a song this morning as I thought about you, "I Love To Tell The Story Of Jesus And His Love." Alan Jackson does a great job singing this song. God gave you the wisdom and enthusiasm to tell the story of Jesus and his love in a way that everyone knew you were sent by him. You also told the story by the way you lived your life. You touched the lives of so many! God blessed me by having you for a Brother!!! My prayer is that God will be with each of us: Angie,Nathan's Family,Bethany's Family,Tyler, Mother and his Brothers and Sisters and all of those that loved him so much and continue to give us guidance and peace. May we as Jonathan's Family and Friends always strive to do God's will. I love you.##imported-begin##Tony Rogers##imported-end##

“ Jon was my baby brother and I loved him so very much. My heart is broken at the thought of losing him at such a young age but some day I will meet him again in heaven. I love his family and oh how he did love them. He was such a good person we don't understand why this had to happen but there is no doubt where he is now-no more pain, no more suffering-no more being so tired. Love you brother,
