

Josephine Winnie McPeake

November 4, 1913 - December 23, 2003

Funeral services for Josephine A. McPeake are scheduled for 2:00pm, Friday, December 26, 2003 at Scotts Hill Church of Christ with Bro. J. Walker Whittle and Bro. Jay Street officiating. Burial will follow in Holmes Cemetery. Mrs. McPeake departed this life at Jackson General Hospital at about 10:00pm, December 23, 2003 after a rather extended illness. She had been a resident of the Chester County Nursing Home for nearly two years. Josephine was the daughter of Clint and Lucy Austin, having been born November 4, 1913 in Lexington, Tennessee. She lived her entire life in Henderson County, except during her early teen years when she lived in Detroit, Michigan. She was an only child. She was married to the late Marse McPeake and they spent many happy years together. They had one adopted son, Joe McPeake, who predeceased his mother and father. She leaves behind no close relatives, but a host of dear friends. She was a faithful member of the Scotts Hill Church of Christ where her husband served as an Elder for many years. She was a faithful Bible teacher and a great supporter of her husband in the work in the Lord's Kingdom. Professionally, she was an elementary school teacher at Scotts Hill and a social worker with the Dept. of Human Services, working out of Lexington, Tennessee. Visitation will be at Scotts Hill Church of Christ on Friday, December 26 from 11:00am until time of service at 2:00pm. In lieu of flowers, please send memorial gifts to the Marse and Josephine McPeake Scholarship Fund at Freed Hardeman University, Henderson, TN 38340.
